

BIRD STUDY:

Leighton Connection – the Leighton property is 36 hectares of spectacular land in the foothills of Alberta, an area abundant with birds and wildlife. Students will focus on a study of local birds, migration, song and identification.

Learning Connection – seasonal changes, focus on plants and animals – science focus