

Watercolour: the medium here will be watercolour in the completion of a nature-inspired painting. Students will use floral art on display in the gallery and well as still life and the natural environment as aides in their painting.

