The Leighton Foundation was established on September 18, 1974 by Barbara Leighton, an artist and educator and widow of Alfred Crocker Leighton, a renowned painter, former director of the Alberta College of Art and Design, founder of the Banff School of Fine Art and the Alberta Society of Artists. The Leighton Foundation is a

The Leighton Foundation continues to pursue Barbara Leighton's dream of promoting education and art appreciation for enjoyment by adults and children. Barbara believed a relaxed and inspirational environment stimulates creativity, learning and freedom of expression.

Membership to the Leighton Foundation, and site of the Leighton Art Centre, with its spectacular view of the Rocky Mountains and Foothills, provides you with the opportunity to become involved in one of Alberta's most historic and active art centres. We offer a diverse program of changing exhibitions, special events, education programs for school children, art lectures and workshops for adults. The proceeds from your support help maintain our facilities, 80 acre property, and permanent collection, for generations to come.

Vision:

Our dream is to unleash the art in everyone.

Mission:

is to create a spectacular setting for art and the creative process for generations to come.
